

The Life & Times of Parson James Woodforde: A Flower Festival

A special calendar for 2010 of colour photographs of the Flower Festival in All Saints' Church in celebration of the life of Parson Woodforde

Across the late May Bank Holiday in 2009, a Flower Festival was held in All Saints' Church, Weston Longville. Twenty-six beautiful floral displays were created by local people and friends of the church.

Cassie Tillett, wife of the Rector, took photographs of the event, and using these, she has created a unique calendar for 2010.

The calendar is A4 sized, with each month showing 1, 2 or 3 photos of an appropriate flower arrangement.

To order, please complete this form and return it with your payment* to The Rectory as soon as possible, but at the very latest by the end of November. An order will be placed whenever the total orders exceed five copies, so depending on orders, this may happen several times between now and November.

The cost shown below includes at least 50p profit per copy for The Wensum Group of Churches (the exact amount will depend on the number of copies ordered and the shared postage). If you would like to make a further contribution, please do so in the space provided.

I would like to order copies of the Parson Woodforde Flower Festival calendar. I understand that the costs quoted include P&P and a donation of at least 50p to The Wensum Group of Churches.
